We are passionate about service! We pride ourselves in our commitment to providing high quality, exceptional service at all times. We offer a reliable, proactive and efficient service. Should any issues ever arise we assure you that we will do everything we can to resolve them as rapidly as possible. We are proud to say that we have a key relationship with all of our customers and meet with them on a regular basis. Our motto is that we stand behind a service, not a contract.

Established in 1935, London Linen Supply have a long history of providing customers with a high quality, cost effective and friendly service. We are the market leader in the Restaurant Linen Rental Industry.

The family who own and work within the company are experts in their field and possess a commitment to high standards of quality and service, resulting in retaining both dedicated staff and loyal customers along with an excellent reputation in the industry.

Following the success of London Linen Supply, and in response to feedback, we have expanded and developed two further thriving divisions - London Workwear Rental and The Caterers Linen Supply. We are now pleased to be operating The London Linen Group, providing a linen hire and laundry solution for many sectors of the market on a national basis.
